PARLIAMENTARY REMUNERATION ACT 1989
REPORT PURSUANT TO SECTION 13(1) OF THE ACT

PRELIMINARY

1. The Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1989 ("the Act"), which was assented to on 12 December 1989, repealed the Parliamentary Remuneration Tribunal Act 1975, and reconstituted a Parliamentary Remuneration Tribunal with new functions. The Act, inter alia, provided for the basic salaries of members of parliament to bear a fixed relationship to those of members of the House of Representatives in the Commonwealth Parliament and for certain prescribed additional salaries and expense allowances to be at rates bearing a fixed percentage to the rate of basic salary. Pursuant to section 9(a) of the Act, the Parliamentary Remuneration Tribunal determines additional allowances to be payable to a member or recognised office holder and, pursuant to section 9(b) of the Act, makes recommendations to the Minister on matters referred to it by the Minister, relating to the provision of services, equipment or facilities to a Member or recognised office holder.
2. Pursuant to Schedule 2 of the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1989, I, THE HONOURABLE JOHN PATRICK SLATTERY, being an Acting Judge of the Supreme Court of New South Wales was, on 22 December 1989, appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New South Wales to be the Parliamentary Remuneration Tribunal.
3. The Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1989, provides for the making by the Tribunal of an annual determination of the additional allowances payable to recognised office holders and members of parliament, to take effect from 1 July of each year.
4. Specifically, Section 11 of the Act provides -

- "(1) An annual determination as regards additional allowances is to be made on or before 1 June in each year (or such later date as the Chief Justice directs under this section), with effect from 1 July in that year.
- (2) The Chief Justice may, because of the illness of the person holding office as the Tribunal or for any other reason that seems proper to the Chief Justice, from time to time by order published in the Gazette, direct that a particular annual determination is to be made on or before a later specified date.
- (3) If an annual determination is not made by 1 July in a year, additional allowances continue to be payable at the rates at which they were payable before that date, until payment of additional allowances can be effected in accordance with the determination, but any necessary adjustments are to be made as a result of the making of the determination".

PROCEDURE

5. The Tribunal sent letters to all members of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly inviting them to forward to it such written submissions as they might wish to make in relation to the additional allowances which should be paid to recognised office holders and members and the rates of any such allowances. The letters also stated that the Tribunal was prepared to interview any member who had made a written submission and wished to confer with it for the purpose of elucidating or elaborating such submission. They concluded with the statement that submissions and conferences would be treated confidentially and that any material used in the report and determination would not be identified with its author.

6. In response to the abovementioned letters, the Tribunal received written submissions from the Parties and members of both Houses. All submissions have been carefully considered by the Tribunal.
7. The Tribunal has made such other inquiries as it considered necessary. It has noted the reports of the Australian Remuneration Tribunal and other State remuneration tribunals.
8. The Tribunal has been informed of changes in the costs incurred by members in the performance of their parliamentary duties since the last review.

ELECTORAL ALLOWANCES OF MEMBERS OF BOTH HOUSES

9. The Tribunal has reviewed the costs incurred by members in servicing their electorates and has increased rates of allowances accordingly.

SPECIAL EXPENSES OR "LIVING AWAY FROM HOME" ALLOWANCES

10. These allowances are provided to country members of both Houses towards the cost of overnight accommodation whilst in Sydney on parliamentary business or in transit to and from Sydney.
11. The Tribunal's Special Determination of 29 May 1991 under section 12 of the Act made provision for members to elect, when elected to parliament, to be paid either a daily or annual Special Expenses Allowance for the life of a parliament. The Special Expenses Allowance should be sufficient to permit the acquisition of rented accommodation.
12. The Tribunal has increased the daily Special Expenses Allowances per overnight stay in Sydney and in transit to and from Sydney. The annual Special Expenses Allowance has been increased to reflect the increase in the daily Sydney rate.

13. The Tribunal received submissions which indicated that the maximum number of overnight stays that are available for parliamentary business other than sittings of the House or meetings of parliamentary committees was insufficient for those members who fall within the grouping of Minister, Speaker, Leader of the Opposition in the Assembly and Council, Leader of the Third Party in the Assembly, resident in Category 1 or Category 2. The Tribunal considers that it is appropriate to remove the maximum allocation available for parliamentary business other than sittings of the House or meetings of parliamentary committees for members within that grouping. The maximum number of overnight stays per annum is adequate however and has not been varied.
14. In consideration of the changes now made, members within the grouping of Minister, Speaker, Leader of the Opposition - Assembly and Council, Leader of Third Party in Assembly - resident in Category 1 or Category 2 will be afforded the opportunity to re-elect, from 1 July 1992 for the remainder of the life of the parliament, to be paid either a daily or annual Special Expenses Allowance.
15. The Tribunal has noted that the Legislative Assembly 1992 Autumn session has made provision for four sitting days per week. The Tribunal has also noted that in the past the House has usually sat for three days per week. The number of sitting days of the House may significantly affect the adequacy of the present rate of Special Expenses Allowances. If a four day sitting week continues in future sessions of parliament it may be appropriate that the Premier direct the Tribunal to make a special determination as regards the Special Expenses Allowance.

COMMITTEE ALLOWANCES

16. The allowances fixed for Chairmen of Joint or Select Committees and for members of the Public Accounts Committee have been increased by approximately 2.5 per cent.

TRAVELLING ALLOWANCES FOR THE PREMIER, MINISTERS OF THE CROWN,
OTHER RECOGNISED OFFICE HOLDERS, COMMITTEE MEMBERS, SPOUSES OR APPROVED RELATIVES

17. These have been increased to reflect the relevant change in the level of expenses covered by the allowances.

CHARTER TRAVEL

18. A survey conducted during the current review revealed that there had been no increase to charter costs in the past twelve months. Although some country routes were deleted from the itinerary of an established airline these routes have been taken on by new airlines. Having regard to these facts the quantum of the charter allowance has not been increased at this time.
19. The Tribunal has had regard to the particular difficulties of travel within the electorate of Murray and has reviewed the adequacy of the current allowance payable to the member. The Tribunal has increased the charter allowance for the member for Murray.

REIMBURSEMENT OF CERTAIN TRAVELLING EXPENSES

20. Provision is made for payment of a car allowance to those members of the Legislative Council who reside in the country and at a considerable distance from the closest airport or railway station from which they can obtain transport to and from Sydney, thus requiring the use of their private motor vehicles between their homes and the airport or railway station. The Tribunal's enquiries show that there has been no increase in the costs of running a motor vehicle, therefore the car allowance has not been increased at this time.

PROVISION OF GOVERNMENT OWNED MOTOR VEHICLES FOR MEMBERS

21. On 26 July 1990 the Tribunal made a Report and Determination on the provision of Government-owned motor vehicles to members of the Legislative Council and members of the Legislative Assembly for use in the servicing of their electorates and on other parliamentary business.
22. The Tribunal's Determination included the provision of a motor vehicle at the option of the member and set out the conditions relating thereto. The cost of providing the motor vehicle, including running costs, was to be met by the member out of her or his electoral allowance or salary.
23. Due to legislative impediments the Tribunal's Determination has not been adopted at this time.
24. The Tribunal is of the view that, should legislation be introduced which overcomes the impediments to the adoption of the Determination of 26 July 1990 then the Tribunal would support the provision of Government-owned motor vehicles to members of the Legislative Council and members of the Legislative Assembly in terms similar to those set out in the 1990 Determination.

PARLIAMENTARY REMUNERATION ACT 1989DETERMINATIONS PURSUANT TO SECTION 11(1) OF THE ACT

For the reasons set forth in the above Report, the Parliamentary Remuneration Tribunal hereby makes the following determinations of the additional allowances which should be paid on and from 1 July, 1992 to members, including recognised office holders, in the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in lieu of the amounts presently payable, for each of the purposes indicated below, and not in addition thereto:

- meetings of parliamentary committees of which he or she is a member, or direct travel to or from such meetings; or

The member may elect, when elected to parliament, to be paid either a daily or annual Special Expenses Allowance for the life of a parliament. In view of the changes now made, a Minister, Speaker, Leader of the Opposition in the Assembly and Council, Leader of Third Party in the Assembly, resident in Category 1 or Category 2 may re-elect to be paid either a daily or annual Special Expenses Allowance from 1 July 1992, for the remainder of the life of this parliament.

The figures in brackets show the maximum number of overnight stays that are available for parliamentary business other than sittings of the House or meetings of parliamentary committees. The figures in brackets are not additional to the overall maximum overnight stays allowed.

A member is entitled to only one allowance for each overnight stay.

The Allowance is not payable for an overnight stay within the electoral district of the Legislative Assembly which contains the home base of the member.

Where parliamentary business requires members to exceed their entitlements set out above, then reimbursement of the actual and reasonable expenses, but not exceeding $140.00 for each overnight stay in Sydney and $108.00 for each overnight stay whilst in transit to and from Sydney, shall be allowed for any additional overnight stays. Such reimbursement is subject to the production of receipts relating to accommodation and a statement from the member concerned outlining other costs such as meals and incidental expenses. Provided that, payments made for overnight stays on parliamentary business other than the sittings of the House or meetings of parliamentary committees should not exceed the maximum shown in brackets above.

SPECIAL EXPENSES ALLOWANCE - ANNUAL ALLOWANCE

The annual Special Expenses Allowances for overnight stays are as follows:

- (3) $12,600 per annum to each member of the Legislative Council whose usual place of residence is situated in an electoral district specified in Category 1 and to each member of the Legislative Assembly for an electoral district specified in Category 1.

A member is entitled to only one allowance under paragraphs (1) to (3).

The electoral districts included in each category, are as determined in the Tribunal's Determination of 29 May 1991, under section 12 of the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1989, and are set forth in Appendix B.

REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES FOR CHARTER TRANSPORT OF MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

For the purposes of this clause "charter transport" means charter transport used within and for the service of the member's electorate and includes charter aircraft, drive yourself vehicles and any other mode of charter transport which may be deemed appropriate in the circumstances by the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly.

Each accounting year for the purposes of the reimbursement of expenses for charter transport shall commence on 1 July; and

- (1) The member for the Electoral District of Broken Hill shall be reimbursed to a maximum amount of $16,092 per annum for charter transport.
- (2) The member for the Electoral District of Murray shall be reimbursed to a maximum amount of $12,404 per annum for charter transport.
- (3) The members for the Electoral Districts of Barwon, Lachlan, Murrumbidgee and Upper Hunter shall each be reimbursed to a maximum amount of $8,716 per annum for charter transport.
- (4) The members for the Electoral Districts of Albury, Burrinjuck, Clarence, Dubbo, Monaro and Northern Tablelands shall each be reimbursed to a maximum amount of $5,362 per annum for charter transport.

While charter transport reimbursable under this determination is intended to be used within and for the service of the member's electorate, where the source of available charter transport is outside the boundaries of the electorate, the reasonable additional expenses consequently incurred may be included in the reimbursement available under this determination.

COMMITTEE ALLOWANCES

Members of the Legislative Council and of the Legislative Assembly serving as Chairmen of Joint Committees and Select Committees shall be paid the sum of $94.70 for each day upon which they attend a meeting or an official visit of inspection if that day is one upon which the Legislative Council (so far as a member of the Council is concerned) or the Legislative Assembly (so far as a member of the Assembly is concerned) is not sitting.

Members of the Public Accounts Committee, other than the Chairman, shall each receive a committee allowance of $2,150 per annum.

TRAVELLING ALLOWANCES FOR THE PREMIER, MINISTERS OF THE CROWN,
OTHER RECOGNISED OFFICE HOLDERS, COMMITTEE MEMBERS, SPOUSES OR APPROVED RELATIVES

When travelling on official business the following shall be the travelling allowances per day payable respectively to the undermentioned:-

	Capital Cities (incl. Canberra)	Other Areas	Where no overnight stay is involved
Premier	$306	$168	$76
Ministers	$246	$140	$63
President of the Legislative Council and Speaker of the Legislative Assembly	$246	$140	$63
The Leader of the Opposition in the Legislative Council
Leader and Deputy Leader of the Opposition in the Legislative Assembly
Leader and Deputy Leader of a Recognised Political Party of which not less than ten members are members of the Legislative Assembly
Chairman of Select, Joint, Standing and Public Accounts Committees
Members of Select, Joint, Standing and Public Accounts Committees	$185	$116	$45

An absence from Sydney for a period in excess of six hours shall be the minimum requirement for the payment of travelling allowance where no overnight absence is involved. Where absence overnight is involved, the absence must extend six hours beyond the first period of twenty-four hours before a second day's allowance is payable. Therefore, the second day's allowance is as shown in the column headed "Where no overnight stay is involved".

On occasions when the rates of travelling allowance set out above prove to be insufficient, reimbursement of actual and reasonable expenses shall be allowed, subject to the production of receipts relating to accommodation and a statement from the member concerned outlining other costs such as meals and incidental expenses.

A Minister, whose spouse accompanies him or her to a State or other official function and who consequently incurs expenses in respect of meals and accommodation for self and spouse exceeding the allowance to which he or she is entitled under paragraph (a) above, shall be entitled to be reimbursed such excess expenses. This provision applies to the "approved relative" of a Minister in a case where there is no spouse.

REIMBURSEMENT OF CERTAIN TRAVELLING EXPENSES

- (1) (a) When a member of the Legislative Council or of the Legislative Assembly travels by taxi from Sydney Airport to the city for the purpose of attending a sitting of the House of Parliament or any Joint, Select or Standing Committee or the Public Accounts Committee, of which she or he is a member, the member shall be entitled to be reimbursed the actual cost of the taxi fare incurred for the journey between Sydney Airport and the city. The member shall also be entitled to be reimbursed the actual cost of the taxi fare incurred for the return journey between the city and Sydney Airport from such a sitting.

- (b) A member of the Legislative Council or of the Legislative Assembly shall be entitled to be reimbursed the actual cost of the fare incurred on up to twenty five taxi journeys per annum when travelling in the course of other parliamentary business between Sydney Airport and the city.
- (2) Where the residence of a member of the Legislative Council is more than 25 kilometres from the airport or the closest practicable railway station from which the member is to commence a flight or train journey to Sydney for the purpose of attending a sitting of the Council or of a Select, Joint or Standing committee of which she or he is a member, and travels by private motor vehicle to such airport or railway station, the member shall be paid an amount equivalent to 49 cents per kilometre for the distance driven in excess of 25 kilometres on each single journey between the member's place of residence and such airport or railway station. A separate allowance, calculated on the same basis, shall be payable in respect of the return journey.

This allowance is also payable in respect of other journeys between the member's residence and Sydney on parliamentary business, but excluding party business, provided that, in the case of air travel, the fare is payable by the Government under the air travel entitlement provisions for journeys between the member's residence and Sydney.

These allowances are payable upon the following conditions:-

- (i) that the member satisfies the President of the Legislative Council as to the existence of the circumstances mentioned above; and

- (ii) that the member certifies to the President as to the distance driven by her or him to reach the airport or railway station and return home therefrom.

Dated this first day of May, 1992.
